Finding God in All Things

29th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
October 21, 2018

A PRAYER FOR OUR TIMES

How baffling you are, oh Church, and yet how I love you! How you have made me suffer, and yet how much I owe you! I would like to see you destroyed, and yet I need your presence. You have given me so much scandal and yet you have made me understand what sanctity is. I have seen nothing in the world more devoted to obscurity, more compromised, more false, and yet I have touched nothing more pure, more generous, more beautiful. How often I have wanted to shut the doors of my soul in your face, and how often I have prayed to die in the safety of your arms.

No, I cannot free myself from you, because I am you, though not completely. And besides, where would I go? Would I establish another? I would not be able to establish it without the same faults, for they are the same faults I carry in me. And if I did establish another, it would be my Church, not the Church of Christ. I am old enough to know that I am no better than anyone else. ...)

The Church has the power to make me holy but it is made up, from the first to the last, only of sinners. And what sinners! It has the omnipotent and invincible power to renew the Miracle of the Eucharist, but is made up of men who are stumbling in the dark, who fight every day against the temptation of losing their faith. It brings a message of pure transparency but it is incarnated in slime, such is the substance of the world. It speaks of the sweetness of its Master, of its non-violence, but there was a time in history when it sent out its armies to disembowel the infidels and torture the heretics.

It proclaims the message of evangelical poverty, and yet it does nothing but look for money and alliances with the powerful.

Those who dream of something different from this are wasting their time and have to rethink it all. And this proves that they do not understand humanity. Because this is humanity, made visible by the Church, with all its flaws and its invincible courage, with the Faith that Christ has given it and with the love that Christ showers on it.

The deep bond between God and His Church, is an intimate part of each one of us. (...) To each of us God says, as he says to his Church, “And I will betroth you to me forever” (Hosea 2,21). But at the same time he reminds us of reality: “Your lewdness is like rust. I have tried to remove it in vain. There is so much that not even a flame will take it away” (Ezechiel 24, 12).

But then there is even something more beautiful. The Holy Spirit who is Love, sees us as holy, immaculate, beautiful under our guises of thieves and adulterers. (...) It’s as if evil cannot touch the deepest part of humanity.

DE MELLO

Marked for God

Have you ever written your name on something that belongs to you - just to make sure no one else takes it? That's what God does for us when we are baptized. Because He loves us so much, His Spirit lives inside each of us. By loving those around us, we can let everyone know we belong to God.

I am God's child and to Him I belong. I'll show His great love the whole day long.

SAINTS SPEAK

Peace is not arbitrary. It must be based on definite facts. God has all the facts on his side; the world does not. Therefore God, and not the world, can give peace.

Billy Graham,
November 1918 -February, 2018
American Christian Evangelist

"The grace of God utterly and wholly permeates our lives just as we are. All of our failures and weaknesses are absolutely irrelevant in the face of such all pervading grace... God is creating us in the present moment, loving us into being... our very presence in the present moment is the manifested presence of God."

James Finley,
Contemporary American Christian author,
Thomas Merton scholar

Our annual Jamaican Festival in aid of St. Anne's Parish was once again a huge success.

To David, Shawn and Blair Metcalfe for collecting the donations at the door, to the ladies who sold all the baked goodies: Anne Curtis, Barb Byrne, Barb Hogan, and Joan Bill, thank you so much.

A huge thanks for the very beautifully decorated and tasty cupcakes that were donated by Linda Hart and to Blair Metcalfe, Maurice Babin, Carl Bill, Don and Barb Byrne, for preparing the Hall and serving the tea and coffee on Sunday morning.

We will be forever grateful to the many parishioners (and there were many) who stayed behind to help with the clean up.

Thanks to Allie Fry at The Fish Exchange who secured the $50.00 gift card for the door prize.

Finally, to all parishioners and friends who donated goods for the bake/craft sale, attended, made cash donations, purchased goodies at the bake sale and to anyone who helped in any way by giving so generously of their time - you have our sincere gratitude.

Congratulations to Gabe Cooper, Madeline Diamond-Grah and Lily Abbass who won the door prizes. Sincere appreciation goes to the Jesuit Community for their continued support and to Maria, Michele and Alan for all you did to help organize this event.

Our event raised $1,461.00 . This amount will go a long way in making a difference in the lives of the children and their families at St. Anne's Parish. THANK YOU!!

Loretta Metcalfe
Coordinator

Our Parish, and the children of St. Anne's School in Kingston, Jamaica, are very appreciative of Loretta and her helpers, for organizing our Jamaica Festival.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY
OCTOBER 21, 2018

On this world Mission Sunday, we are invited to celebrate our mission's vocation, to pray for the people who are actively engaged in mission, and to generously contribute to our worldwide mission solidarity fund through this collection.

Your gift on this day helps:

- * People in remote villages, towns and cities through the witness and work of missionaries and local priests;
- * Children, the elderly, refugees, the sick, and orphans through the services of religious Sisters and Brothers;
- * To bring the Gospel to the poorest of our human family;
- * Catechists proclaim the message of hope and peace that only Christ can give.

Please offer your prayers for the work of the Church in the missions today and be as generous as you can on World Mission Sunday.
